

Feature Facts #11

1. A plan of government. (224)
2. The first constitution the United States created. (225)
3. Document signed by King John in 1215 requiring the King to follow rules like other English people. (223)
4. Document from 1689, requiring the king to get approval from Parliament before changing laws. (223)
5. A system of government where the citizens elect representatives who are responsible to the people. (224)
6. All leaders have to obey the laws and no one has total power. (224)
7. Official approval. (226)
8. A system for bringing new states into the Union. (226)