

Feature Facts #13

---

1. The idea that political authority rests with people. (240)
2. Sharing of powers between the states and the national government. (240)
3. Branch of the government that makes laws. (240)
4. Branch of the government that includes the president and his cabinet. (240)
5. Branch of the government that consists of our court system. (240)
6. System of government that allows the branches to check each others' power. (241)
7. Those who were opposed to the new Constitution. (242)
8. Those like, James Madison, Alexander Hamilton, and George Washington, who supported the new Constitution. (243)